Foreign Language Proficiency Requirement

Before graduation, all students in the Weinberg College of Arts & Sciences must demonstrate proficiency in a modern or classical foreign language. Proficiency is defined as competence in the work covered through the final quarter of a college-level second-year language course (or equivalent determined by each department).

Proficiency may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways:

A. Taking Northwestern coursework leading to and including the final quarter of the second-year course.

Students with no prior knowledge in the chosen foreign language begin with the first quarter of the first-year course and proceed to take six quarter-courses, completing the sixth course with a grade of at least C-. Each of the preceding courses must be taken for a letter grade.

Students with prior knowledge in the chosen foreign language take a Northwestern placement test which determines the level at which study of the language should begin (In some languages AP exam scores can determine placement). Students register at that designated level and proceed through the remainder of the sequence to complete the third quarter of the second-year sequence, with a grade of at least C-.

Language placement tests are offered to incoming students during the summer preceding enrollment or during Wildcat Welcome, the new student orientation period.

B. Taking a language placement test and earning a score which meets the College’s criteria for proficiency.

Students with a high level of competence in a foreign language offered at Northwestern can demonstrate proficiency by earning a sufficiently high score on a language placement test offered by the relevant Northwestern department. While no credit is given, students who meet a particular language program’s proficiency criteria satisfy the foreign language requirement.

Language placement tests are offered to incoming students the summer preceding enrollment or during Wildcat Welcome, the new student orientation period.

Students with knowledge of a foreign language not offered at Northwestern can petition for proficiency evaluation in that language. The petition form is available at: www.weinberg.northwestern.edu/handbook/documents/FL_validation_highschool.pdf

If the petition is denied and the language is offered at Northwestern, the student will be asked to take the Northwestern placement test. If the petition is granted and the language is offered at Northwestern, the student may request a proficiency evaluation in the language.

C. Earning a College Entrance Examination Board Advanced Placement Examination score which satisfies the foreign language proficiency requirement.

Consult Weinberg’s foreign language proficiency table at: www.weinberg.northwestern.edu/handbook/degree/foreign-language-proficiency/fulfill-proficiency-requirement.html

D. Providing evidence of attending a high school where a language other than English was the primary language of instruction.

Students who attended high schools in which the primary language of instruction was not English may complete the petition for validation based on high school coursework and submit it to the Weinberg Office of Undergraduate Studies and Advising.

(If a student judged to have fulfilled the Weinberg requirement wishes to continue study in that language, s/he should contact the department directly for placement information.)

The petition form is available at: www.weinberg.northwestern.edu/handbook/documents/FL_validation_highschool.pdf

If the petition is denied and the language is offered at Northwestern, the student will be asked to take the Northwestern placement test. If the language is not offered at Northwestern, the student may request a proficiency evaluation in the language.

E. Contacting the Language Proficiency Committee and AccessibleNU.

Students with a clinically diagnosed disability affecting foreign language acquisition, may, with the approval of the Language Proficiency Committee, use both language and non-language courses to meet the foreign language requirement. They should first contact AccessibleNU for a preliminary assessment and additional information.

In no case is the language proficiency requirement waived.

School of Communication

Language requirements for students in the School of Communication (SoC) are determined by the student’s choice of bachelor’s degree program (B.A. or B.S.) and major. All students who complete a major in Communication Studies or in Radio/Television/Film and all students who complete a B.A. in Theatre, Dance, or Performance Studies must demonstrate foreign language proficiency. Proficiency is defined as competence in the work covered through the final quarter of a college-level second-year language course sequence (or equivalent determined by each foreign language department).

Students who enroll for course credit to satisfy the proficiency requirement must earn a grade no lower than C- in the final course of the second-year course sequence.

Other Schools

For information on the foreign language proficiency requirements in other schools, please refer to each school’s website or the Undergraduate Catalog at: www.registrar.northwestern.edu/courses/undergrad_catalog.html
This table summarizes ways to fulfill the Weinberg College of Arts & Sciences Foreign Language Proficiency Requirement. For more details, please see the information on Weinberg Language Proficiency Requirement in the online Weinberg College Student Handbook: http://www.wcas.northwestern.edu/advising/forlangtable.html

All courses used to attain the Weinberg College of Arts & Sciences foreign language proficiency must be taken for a letter grade; they cannot be taken Pass / No Pass (P/N).

Language Placement Tests

Online language placement tests are available for 11 languages at Northwestern University: Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Latin, Russian, Spanish, and Swahili.

For information on placement tests in Czech, Ancient Greek, Hebrew, Hindi, Persian (Farsi), Polish, Portuguese, Turkish, or Urdu contact the language placement coordinators, listed to the right.

Language placement information for first-year students

An incoming first-year student who has previously studied a foreign language and plans to continue studying it at Northwestern will need to determine at what level to begin. Departments teaching these subjects may use a student’s scores on the Advanced Placement (AP) Examination and/or a Northwestern placement test to help plan an appropriate academic program.

As a rule, online placement tests should be taken as early as possible; however, incoming first-year students should not attempt to take an online language placement test until a supported test date is announced on the Wildcat Welcome web page, which is posted during the summer.

Take the test online

To begin, you will need a Northwestern University Network ID (Net ID) and password to gain access to the testing system. After logging into the system for the first time, you will be asked to complete a short profile, which also requests your student ID number. After completing the profile information, you will be presented with a list of available language tests. After selecting a test, you will review the testing agreement that affirms your adherence to Northwestern’s principles of Academic Integrity and then begin the test.

Take an online language placement test
http://placement.madstudio.northwestern.edu

Access to placement results requires a valid Northwestern NetID and password and may additionally require that the student either be on campus or connected to the Northwestern Virtual Private Network (VPN).

For the following languages, access your online results at:
http://placement-test.mmlc.northwestern.edu/results/

- Arabic
- Chinese
- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese

Placement results in Chinese, Polish, Turkish, and Russian that demonstrate native or near-native proficiency levels remain valid the entire four years.

Validity of Placement Results

Each language department determines the length of validity of its Placement Test.

Students participating in summer, semester or year-long language programs in the U.S. or abroad are generally required to retake the placement exam.

Students should contact the particular department for advising, especially if continuing language study after a break in language study.

Valid 1.5 years

- Latin (Each case is evaluated individually)
- Portuguese
- Spanish

Valid 2 years

- Arabic (if Placement grade is B or above)
- Persian (if Placement grade is B or above)
- Turkish (if Placement grade is B or above)

Valid 4 years

- German
- Turkish (native or near-native proficiency)

Contact the department for:

- Ancient Greek
- Hebrew
- Swahili

For questions of a more academic/administrative nature, e-mail the appropriate placement coordinator(s).

Pass / No Pass Policies

The Council on Language Instruction urges students in colleges other than Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences to check with their advisers to see whether any language course taken for Pass/No Pass will satisfy the language requirement of their college or degree, or the requirements for a major or a minor in those colleges.

For a description of degree requirements, students can also consult the undergraduate catalog on-line at: www.registrar.northwestern.edu/courses/undergrad_catalog.html

First- and Second-Year (Regular and Intensive) Language Classes

- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Korean
- Latin
- Portuguese
- Spanish
- Arabic
- Chinese
- Czech
- Hebrew
- Hindi-Urdu
- Persian (Farsi)
- Polish
- Russian
- Swahili
- Turkish

Pass/No Pass registration is not allowed in any of the first- and second-year language classes in French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Latin, Portuguese, and Spanish regardless of whether students take the class in fulfillment of the language requirement or not. As language classes require daily work in and outside of the classroom, this rule is to ensure that all students come prepared to class so that they can progress with the rest of the class.

Pass/No Pass registration in first- and second-year language classes may be allowed in language programs other than French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Latin, Portuguese, and Spanish (e.g. Arabic, Greek, Hebrew, Russian, etc.) if the student is not using the language class to fulfill the Weinberg foreign language requirement or a language major or minor requirement in Weinberg.

Language Classes Beyond the First Two Years

If not otherwise stated in the course description, language courses beyond the first two years can be taken Pass/No Pass unless the courses are counted towards a language major or minor.

Studying Abroad

Studying abroad offers an exceptional opportunity to foster personal and academic growth and development while continuing to work on academic degree requirements. Students are encouraged to take their hard-earned knowledge of a language and put it to the test while living and studying in another country and culture.

Many academic programs in all of Northwestern’s six undergraduate colleges and schools have been designed to allow students to spend up to a year abroad; students should plan early and consult academic advisers even as first-year students.

Students usually spend a summer, 1-2 quarters or full year abroad during their junior year, although they are eligible to study abroad starting with the summer after completing their first year.

With careful planning, many of the courses taken abroad on Northwestern-sponsored and affiliated programs may be used to satisfy college and major/minor requirements.

Students are best able to make use of opportunities abroad when they have a solid foundation in the language and culture of the host country.

Many of Northwestern’s affiliated programs require a minimum of two years of college language instruction, and it is best that students inform themselves of the specific program requirements early in their studies.

The Study Abroad Office is typically the first point of contact in the planning process. Students should also consult with study abroad advisers and/or departmental advisers of the applicable language.

Planning to Study Abroad

Students are best able to make use of opportunities abroad when they have a solid foundation in the language and culture of the host country.

Many of Northwestern’s affiliated programs require a minimum of two years of college language instruction, and it is best that students inform themselves of the specific program requirements early in their studies.

The Study Abroad Office is typically the first point of contact in the planning process. Students should also consult with study abroad advisers and/or departmental advisers of the applicable language.

The Northwestern Study Abroad Office and the Office of International Program Development are in the process of integrating at the time of publication.

GESI provides opportunities in collaborative experiential learning—opportunities that develop global leaders while contributing to the sustainable development of communities in which students work and learn. It offers students the opportunity to address issues such as health, education, environment, youth, women’s empowerment, social enterprise development, and microfinance.

Language Study, Fellowships & Post-Graduation Opportunities

A comfortable working knowledge of a foreign language opens up a broad range of additional academic and professional opportunities to advanced undergraduates and recent graduates.

Northwestern students compete very successfully in national fellowship competitions that include the Gilman, Fulbright, Rotary, Luce, Freeman-Asia, Japanese Government Monbukagakusho, German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) fellowships, and Critical Language Scholarship (CLS).

These programs allow students to design their own research projects or even to begin graduate study abroad.

Substantial course work in language and cultural studies as well as actual experience living in the target culture demonstrate an interest and commitment to working towards international cultural understanding.

Students receiving such fellowships have typically participated in language and cultural studies over the course of their undergraduate studies.

The Office of Fellowships works together with specific language departments to help students identify programs and prepare applications. Strong students are encouraged to begin investigating fellowship programs during their first and second years. Please consult the Office of Fellowship website for more information: www.northwestern.edu/fellowships

Undergraduate Language Grants

Northwestern's Office of Undergraduate Research awards Undergraduate Language Grants (ULGs) to support summer intensive language study either in the US or abroad. The grant provides up to $5000, up to 75% of the full cost of attending the language course.

Undergraduate Language Grants are awarded on the basis of an application that includes a two-page proposal outlining how taking intensive language instruction will advance the student’s professional and academic goals.

To qualify for an Undergraduate Language Grant, the student can be a Northwestern undergraduate in any school, the language program must be at least six weeks long, and language instruction must be the predominant (if not the sole) aim of the program.

The Office of Undergraduate Research offers students interested in applying for this grant advising including proposal review.

The deadline for applications is in January each year.

More information can be found at: http://undergradresearch.northwestern.edu/our-grants-programs/undergraduate-language-grants

Teaching Assistantship Programs

An increasing number of graduating seniors choose to participate in service learning programs immediately after their undergraduate studies. There are government-sponsored English Teaching Assistant programs in Austria, France, Germany, Japan, South Korea and Spain. The Peace Corps program provides additional opportunities, not just for English teaching, but also for students with experience and expertise in a broad range of fields.

Strategically placed at the geographic nexus of Humanities instruction, the Media and Design Studio works to help faculty integrate technology meaningfully and successfully into teaching and learning. From early beginnings as the “Language Laboratories” nearly 50 years ago, the Studio continues to put tools, resources and technological expertise in the hands of many faculty and students today.

Specially-equipped classrooms, labs, and studio spaces offer the ability to conduct computer-assisted language learning activities, high quality audio and video recording, editing and production, tele-collaboration, and newer modes of active learning.

The Studio hosts a quarterly salon event in which faculty share teaching, research, and scholarship challenges as well as potential solutions. Each quarter also includes a schedule of workshops that cover a wide variety of topics from digital content creation, digital storytelling, course design and enhancement, language learning tools and software, and much more.

For a comprehensive overview of services and projects that range from online placement testing to student-produced soap operas and scholarly cultural research, please consult the department Web site: http://madstudio.northwestern.edu.

From our location on the second floor of Kresge Hall, we offer:

- Two dedicated classroom labs designed for computer-based language activities, as well as advanced digital content creation in arts and humanities courses.
- Drop-in facility for independent learning, online course participation, video screening, voice recording, and tele-tandem video chat.
- Collaboration suites and booths for group study, tutoring, and cooperative projects.
- Studio suites for video project editing, sound recording and mixing, and lecture and presentation recording.
- Audiovisual equipment check-out counter.

To inquire about room availability, please write: mads-rooms@northwestern.edu

To inquire about equipment, please write: mads-circ@northwestern.edu

Or, for additional questions, please write the studio at madstudio@northwestern.edu
The Program of African Studies is the home to Swahili language and arts media courses.

Two sections of the first-year and one of the second-year Swahili language course sequences are offered each year. The African Studies adjunct major and minor programs do not have a language requirement.

The 100-level first and second-year Swahili language courses ordinarily cannot be counted towards the elective-course component of the African Studies adjunct major.

An advanced-level Swahili 216-1,2,3 “literature in the language” program is also part of the Swahili curriculum. In three quarter-courses, it introduces Swahili oral tradition, classical literature, and contemporary verbal arts performance in a variety of performance media. The courses need not be taken in sequence, and may be used to satisfy Weinberg College of Arts & Sciences Area VI Literature and Fine Arts distribution requirements and as many as three of the seven electives for the African Studies adjunct major.

Swahili 121-3 or its equivalent is a prerequisite for enrollment in any course in the Swahili 216 program.

SWAHILI 111-1,2,3: Swahili I
The three-quarter elementary language and introduction to East African culture course sequence, Swahili 111-1,2,3 is designed for true beginners with no previous background in the language. Textbook to be determined by Fall 2016. (All college-level beginner’s Swahili programs cover the basics of the whole Modern Standard Swahili grammatical system.) A student can expect to achieve proficiency at the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) Intermediate-Low level after completing the Northwestern first-year Swahili sequence.

SWAHILI 121-1,2,3: Swahili II
A three-quarter intermediate course, textbook to be determined. A student can expect to achieve an American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) Intermediate-High level of proficiency after completing the Swahili II sequence.

Study Abroad in Swahili
The Study Abroad Office has an affiliated program with the School for International Training (SIT) site in Uganda, where Swahili is an important national and regional language.

The Global Engagement Studies Institute (GESI) sponsors programs in western Kenya as well as Uganda: contact the Program of African Studies for pre-travel Swahili language preparation services for GESI.

The Office of International Program Development (IPD, Global Health Studies) administers a Summer Field Research in Public Health Program in Arusha, Tanzania. An Intensive beginning (or higher-level) Swahili course taught by MS Training Center for Development Cooperation-Arusha is part of the program, and earns Northwestern credit and grade.

The Program of African Studies offers pre-travel language preparation services for Summer GHS-Arusha.

After participating, consult the Program of African Studies for placement into the appropriate level of the Northwestern Swahili program.
The Department of Asian Languages and Cultures, launched September 2013, offers various levels of Asian language courses and a broad range of courses in Asian literature, film, gender studies, and culture courses.

The Department of Asian Languages and Cultures offers Chinese, Hindi-Urdu, Japanese, and Korean language courses from beginning through advanced levels. Beginning in the Fall 2016, the Department of Asian Languages and Cultures has offered upper-level Tibetan courses.

Chinese

In all Asian Languages and Culture language courses, a student must complete a course with grade of C- or above to enroll in the next course in the sequence. Please refer to page 6 for Pass/No Pass grading option policies. All students with prior knowledge of any of the languages offered through Department of Asian Languages and Cultures must take the departmental placement test before registering for their first course at Northwestern.

Accelerated courses are meant for students with uneven linguistic skills - They have some speaking proficiency, but limited or no reading and/or writing proficiency, which usually are much lower than their oral abilities. Typically, accelerated courses serve heritage language learners, whose language acquisition happened mostly at home not in their community or country of residence, but other students with uneven linguistic skills may also be placed into accelerated courses.

Regular Track

CHINESE 111-1, 2, 3: Chinese I
This three-quarter sequence of beginning college level Chinese is designed to develop basic literacy and oral proficiency. CHINESE 111-1 is for true beginners with no previous background in the language.

CHINESE 121-1, 2, 3: Chinese II
This three-quarter continuation of 111 is designed to develop literacy and oral proficiency. Successful completion of CHINESE 121-3 will satisfy the Weinberg foreign language requirement.

CHINESE 211-1, 2, 3: Chinese III
This three-quarter intermediate level sequence is designed to further develop literacy and oral proficiency. Students will continue to learn about the Chinese culture and society.

CHINESE 311-1, 2, 3: Chinese IV
Three stand-alone quarterly courses, designed to further improve students’ skills in all linguistic areas in formal Chinese. In 311-3, students will read contemporary Chinese literary works.

Accelerated Track

CHINESE 115-1, 2, 3: Chinese I-Accelerated
This three-quarter sequence of beginning college level Chinese is to develop literacy and oral proficiency. This course is meant for students with some Chinese language speaking proficiency, but no or very limited reading and writing proficiency.

CHINESE 125-1, 2, 3: Chinese II-Accelerated
Three-quarter sequence of intermediate Chinese, with emphasis on reading and writing. Successful completion of CHINESE 125-3 will satisfy the Weinberg foreign language requirement.

CHINESE 215-1, 2, 3: Chinese III-Accelerated
Three-quarter sequence of intermediate-advanced Chinese, with emphasis on formal speaking and writing.

CHINESE 315-1, 2, 3: Chinese IV-Accelerated
Stand-alone quarterly courses designed to bring students’ linguistic skills to a near-native level, focusing on development of formal Chinese skills.

Prerequisite: CHINESE 125-3, 211-3, 212-0 or equivalent.

CHINESE 322-0: Chinese IV Multinational Corporations in China
Training in business reading skills, with a focus on case studies, and speaking/writing skills for discussing business topics professionally. Designed for students interested in China’s economic development and using Chinese in their careers.
Prerequisite: One of CHINESE 215-1, 311-1, 311-2, 311-3 or 312-0 or equivalent.

Hindi-Urdu
In all Asian Languages and Cultures language courses, a student must complete a course with grade of C- or above to enroll in the next course in the sequence. Please refer to page 6 for Pass/No Pass grading option policies. All students with prior knowledge of any of the languages offered through Department of Asian Languages and Cultures must take the departmental placement test before registering for their first course at Northwestern.

Fulfilling the language requirement
International students may be placed out of the Weinberg foreign language requirement by producing a copy of their 10th or 12th standardized test results or their IB exam result for Hindi or Urdu. You need a minimum 70% grade on the standardized test, or a minimum of 5 on an IB exam. If you do not have these exam results, you will be required to take the placement/proficiency validation test in Hindi or Urdu.

HINDI_URD 111-1, 2, 3: Hindi-Urdu I
Prerequisite: Consent of the Department
This is a three-quarter first-year course. In addition, students will learn to read, write, speak, and understand basic Hindi-Urdu. They will start by using the Devanagari script or the Nastaliq script, and then add on the Nastaliq script in the Winter Quarter. HINDI_URD 111 is designed for true beginners with no previous background in the language.

HINDI_URD 116-0: Accelerated Hindi-Urdu Literacy
This quarter-long course is designed for heritage learners with speaking and listening skills in Hindi-Urdu but limited or no reading and writing skills in either Devanagari or Nastaliq or both the scripts. Students will learn how to read and write in Nastaliq and Devanagari, and will also be given a broad overview of the Hindi-Urdu grammar, with focus on areas that tend to be error-prone for learners of Hindi-Urdu. At the end of the quarter, students will be given a test on the basis of which they could be placed into higher level Hindi-Urdu courses, and be eligible to take courses such as HINDI_URD 121-2 or HINDI_URD 211-2, etc.
Prerequisite: Consent of the Department

HINDI_URD 121-1, 2, 3: Hindi-Urdu II
Prerequisite: CHINESE 125-3, 211-3, 212-0 or equivalent.
This course is a three-quarter sequence of intermediate Hindi-Urdu with a focus on vocabulary expansion and speaking in class. Successful completion of HINDI_URD 121-3 will satisfy the Weinberg foreign language requirement.
Prerequisite: HINDI_URD 111-3 or equivalent.

HINDI_URD 211-1, 2, 3: Hindi-Urdu III
Prerequisite: HINDI_URD 121-3 or equivalent.
This course consists of three stand-alone, quarter-long courses of upper-intermediate Hindi-Urdu, which can be taken in any order. The third year of Hindi-Urdu focuses on social and cultural issues, and emphasizes the development of speaking and listening skills.
Prerequisite: HINDI_URD 121-3 or equivalent.

HINDI_URD 310-0: Hindi-Urdu IV
Prerequisite: HINDI_URD 211-3 or equivalent.
Special Topics in Hindi-Urdu
Each course is an independent, quarter-long course, designed for advanced-level Hindi-Urdu students. Various short literary texts, audio-visual materials and films in the original language will be used to develop students’ ability to understand and discuss South Asian society and culture, particularly through writing. Some recently taught courses are: “Partition Stories”, “Fantastical Stories”, and “Modern Hindi and Urdu Short Stories”.
Prerequisite: Three quarters of HINDI_URD 211 or equivalent.
Offered in Winter 2018 and Spring 2018.

ANCIENT GREEK / LATIN

The Classics Department offers courses in Latin and Greek languages and literatures and a major and minor in Classics (with the option to concentrate in Greek only, Latin only, or both). Students with previous Latin or Greek study may place out of one or more quarters of these languages, but no previous knowledge of Latin or Greek is required to complete the major or minor.

If you have an AP score of 4 or 5 on the Latin exam, you should not take the on-line placement test.

With a score of 4, you will need one more course (Latin 201-3, offered only in Spring Quarter) to satisfy the Weinberg foreign language proficiency requirement.

With a score of 5, you have satisfied the Weinberg foreign language proficiency requirement, and to continue studying Latin you should consult the Director of Latin Instruction.

If you have taken more than one year of high school Latin and do not have an AP score of 4 or above and wish to continue your study of Latin, you must take the on-line Latin placement test.

If you have taken more than one year of high school Ancient Greek and wish to continue your study of Greek, you must arrange to take a placement test.

Please refer to page 5 for general information on placement tests.

Ancient Greek

GREEK 115-1, 2: Accelerated Elementary Ancient and Biblical Greek
*Begins Winter Quarter
This accelerated first-year course is a two-quarter introduction to the grammar and vocabulary of ancient Attic Greek. For beginners.

If you have studied Ancient Greek before, make an arrangement to take a written Placement Test. You will be placed in one of the above-mentioned or following courses through the Placement Test.

GREEK 201-1, 2, 3: Introduction to Greek Literature
This three-quarter second-year course is designed to develop proficiency in reading Greek through representative selections from Greek authors.

GREEK 301-0: Readings in Greek Literature

GREEK 399: Independent Study
For advice on enrolling in 300-level Ancient Greek courses, please consult the Director of Greek Instruction.

Latin

LATIN 101-1, 2, 3: Elementary Latin
This is a three-quarter introduction to the principles of classical Latin grammar and syntax; focus on vocabulary acquisition and the development of sight translation skills.

LATIN 201-1, 2, 3: Introduction to Latin Literature
This is a three-quarter second-year course designed to develop proficiency in reading Latin through the introduction of major works of Latin literature. If you have an AP score of 4, you are automatically placed in Latin 201-3, offered in Spring Quarter.

LATIN 310-0: Readings in Latin Literature

LATIN 399-0: Independent Study
For advice on enrolling in 300-level Latin courses, please consult the Director of Latin Instruction.

Study Abroad in Rome
Students majoring in Classics or Art History with strong classical interests and background in Latin and/or Greek may study at the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies (run by Duke University). Admission to the program is very competitive.

Please check with the department Study Abroad Advisor, the Study Abroad Office or its website for more information.

Study Abroad in Greece
The Arcadia in Greece and Arcadia Athens Internship Programs: Fall Quarter or Winter-Spring Quarters.

Students must enroll in one Modern Greek language course (previous knowledge of the language is not required), a cornerstone course, as well as a number of English-taught elective courses.

Please check with the department Study Abroad Advisor, the Study Abroad Office or its website for more information.
The Department of French and Italian offers language and literature courses in French and Italian.

French

Students who have no prior knowledge of French can register for French 111-1.

Students with AP 5 may enroll in French 210 or French 211.

Prior Knowledge of French

Students with any prior knowledge of French or an AP score of 1-4 must take the Placement Test and will be placed in one of the courses described below. Please refer to page 5 for general information on placement tests.

FRENCH 111-1, 2, 3: Elementary French

A three-quarter first-year course for students with no prior knowledge of French. From this course students continue into French 121. This sequence follows the academic calendar (FRENCH 111-1 is only offered in Fall, FRENCH 111-2 in Winter and FRENCH 111-3 in Spring).

FRENCH 115-1, 2: Intensive Elementary French

A two-quarter first-year intensive course designed for students who have had at least one year of French. It is offered as a Fall-Winter sequence.

FRENCH 121-1, 2, 3: Intermediate French

A three-quarter second-year course for students who have completed FRENCH 111-3 or have been placed in the course by the French placement test. Successful completion of FRENCH 121-3 fulfills the Weinberg foreign language requirement. This course should continue in Spring in FRENCH 125-1 (Offered in Spring only).

FRENCH 125-1, 2, 3: Intensive Intermediate French

Study Abroad in French-speaking countries

With the exception of IPD’s programs in Paris (European Union Studies, Art, Literature and Contemporary Thought, Public Health), many study abroad programs in French-speaking countries require a minimum of two years of college-level French, although more is encouraged.

Full-year, semester and summer programs are available.

Students of French can study in France and Belgium with various Northwestern-affiliated programs.

Please check with the Study Abroad Advisor, the Director of Undergraduate Studies, the Northwestern Study Abroad Office or its website, or the IPD Office or its website, for more information.

*FRENCH 202 and FRENCH 203 do not have to be taken sequentially. Students can take FRENCH 202, then FRENCH 203 or vice versa. FRENCH 202 and FRENCH 203 can be taken simultaneously. Students are encouraged to do so to make faster progress.

For prerequisites for the following courses, consult the Undergraduate Catalog.

FRENCH 210: Reading Literatures in French

(Offered twice or three times a year)
Italian

All students with an AP score of 1-2 must take the Placement Test. Students with AP 3 must schedule an oral interview to determine placement.

Students with AP 4 and 5 are exempt from placement test and can register for 200 and/or 300-level courses. Contact Paola Morgavi to discuss your options.

If you have no background in Italian, you can take either Italian 101 (Beginning Italian) or Italian 133/134 (Intensive Italian). Intensive Italian, a double course, fulfills the Weinberg College of Arts & Sciences Language Requirement in one academic year.

ITALIAN 101-1, 2, 3: Beginning Italian
This course, designed for true beginners, is a three-quarter course offered as a Fall-Winter-Spring sequence.

ITALIAN 103-1: Italian for Musicians
This spring course, especially but not exclusively for musicians, is equivalent to ITALIAN 101-3. Grammar study combines with diction and pronunciation practice for opera singers; cultural content focuses on the world of music.
Prerequisite: ITALIAN 101-2 or permission of the instructor.

ITALIAN 133/134 -1, 2, 3: Intensive Italian
This course allows beginning students to cover two years of Italian in one academic year, meets eight hours per week, and counts as two courses. This course moves at a faster pace than ITALIAN 101.
Successful completion of ITALIAN 133-3 / ITALIAN 134-3 fulfills the Weinberg foreign language requirement.

ITALIAN 102-1, 2, 3: Intermediate Italian
This three-quarter second-year course follows on the material studied in ITALIAN 101. Successful completion of ITALIAN 102-3 fulfills the Weinberg foreign language requirement.

ITALIAN 201-0: Italian through Media
This course analyzes contemporary issues as represented in Italian media.
Prerequisite: ITALIAN 102-3 or ITALIAN 133-3 / ITALIAN 134-3 or equivalent proficiency.

ITALIAN 202-0: Italian through Performance
Students compose and perform original materials such as a parody of an Italian soap opera or a futurist performance spectacle.
Prerequisite: ITALIAN 102-3 or ITALIAN 133-3 / ITALIAN 134-3 or equivalent proficiency.

ITALIAN 203-0: Italian Composition
Emphasis in this course is on various forms of written communication. Assignments include both creative and analytical writing.
Prerequisite: ITALIAN 102-3 or ITALIAN 133-3 / ITALIAN 134-3 or equivalent proficiency.

ITALIAN 204-0: Introducing Italian Literature
This course develops reading and discursive skills by introducing fundamental texts and issues of Italian literature.
Prerequisite: ITALIAN 102-3 or ITALIAN 133-3 / ITALIAN 134-3 or equivalent proficiency.

ITALIAN 205-0: Reading Italian Cities
An approach to Italian culture and civilization through an exploration of representative Italian cities.
Prerequisite: ITALIAN 102-3 or ITALIAN 133-3 / ITALIAN 134-3 or equivalent proficiency.

ITALIAN 206-0: Business Italian
Introduction to the business and economic environment in Italy through the study of recent Italian economic history and the current social and economic situation.
Prerequisite: ITALIAN 102-3 or ITALIAN 133-3 / ITALIAN 134-3 or equivalent proficiency.

ITALIAN 207-0: Conversation in Italian
Analysis and discussion of political, social, and cultural issues emerging in contemporary Italy. Emphasis on listening and speaking skills.
Prerequisite: ITALIAN 102-3 or ITALIAN 133-3 / ITALIAN 134-3 or equivalent proficiency.

GERMAN 115-0: Intensive Beginning German through Musical Journeys in Vienna *Spring Quarter
This interdisciplinary one-quarter course offers musically-interested students the opportunity to acquire basic German language skills through an immersion in the musical and cultural history of Vienna.

GERMAN 201-0: Focus Reading: Perspectives on German Life and Culture
This course is for students who would like to improve their reading skills. It provides an opportunity to work with source texts and shorter literary works. Topics offered: Fairy tales, Multicultural Germany and Women artists of the 20th Century.

GERMAN 203-1: Focus Speaking: Current German-American Images
This course offers practical training in communication skills with emphasis on listening comprehension and speaking. “What is German?” and “How do the Germans view Americans?” are posed and answers are sought collaboratively in class via the images, articles and podcasts that make up the cultural content of the syllabus. Students will complete an independent podcast project.

GERMAN 205-1: Focus Writing: Berlin - Faces of the Metropolis
This course is designed for students who wish to further their written proficiency in German. It focuses on the analysis and production of portraits, descriptions of places, narratives, and reports while exploring facets of Germany’s dynamic capital city.

GERMAN 205-2: Focus Writing: East and West – Identities in Flux: German, European, and Transatlantic Perspectives
This course is designed for students who wish to further their written proficiency in German. Students learn to recognize and to work with characteristics of written texts that define reviews of films and cultural events, reports, argumentative essays, advertisements, and interpretations of literary works.

GERMAN 207-0: Current Events in German Media
Students explore current events in a variety of German media (newspapers, TV, Internet, etc.). Topics include politics, music, film, sports, and literature.

GERMAN 209-0: German in the Business World
This course emphasizes business-related communicative situations such as social interactions, business travel, oral and written contact with customers, basic sales dialogues, and basic business letters. Prepares students for the Zertifikat Deutsch für den Beruf (ZdFB) exam.

German Majors & Minors
Up to three courses can be in a complementary language such as Yiddish, Turkish, or Czech.
GERMAN 303-0: Speaking as Discovery: Exploring Standpoints, Developing Arguments, and Expressing Points of View

This course is designed to help students improve their listening comprehension and speaking skills to become creative, independent, and sophisticated users of advanced German. Content will focus on exploring standpoints, developing arguments, and expressing points of view through current cultural texts, films, and news broadcasts.

GERMAN 305-0: Writing as Discovery: Communicating Correctly, Clearly, and Persuasively

In this course, students are introduced to more advanced and sophisticated structures of written German through a series of linguistic exercises. In addition, students will have a chance to work on a longer piece of writing over the length of the quarter.

GERMAN 307-0: Current Events and Issues in German-Language Media

This course presents current political, socioeconomic, and cultural events in Germany and Europe. Topics from German-language media, including newspapers, magazines, Internet sources, and news broadcasts. There will be discussion of journalistic differences among media sources.

GERMAN 309-1: Advanced Business German: Understanding the German Economy

Students will acquire a solid understanding of Germany’s economy, its current problems, German business practices, and differences to the US system. This course starts preparing students for the internationally-recognized exam Prüfung Wirtschaftsdeutsch International (PWD).

GERMAN 309-2: Advanced Business German: German for Marketing and Management

Students will gain skills to function in a multitude of German business contexts such as management or marketing. They will also increase their cross-cultural knowledge and intercultural competency. Course prepares students for the internationally-recognized Prüfung Wirtschaftsdeutsch International (PWD).

Study Abroad in German-speaking Countries

Northwestern has semester and year-long affiliated programs in Berlin, Bonn, Freiburg, Munich, Vienna, and Zurich.

In addition, the Vienna program offers a track for music students.

Many additional study abroad programs are available, including summer programs in Berlin and Munich.

Please check with the Study Abroad Adviser in the Department of German, the Study Abroad Office or its website for more information.

Unless indicated otherwise, first- and second-year language courses begin only in the Fall Quarter and must be taken in sequence.
The Jewish Studies program is the home to Hebrew language and literature courses.

The Crown Family Center for Jewish and Israel Studies offers language and literature courses in Hebrew. If you have any prior knowledge of these languages, you must take the Placement Test. Please refer to page 5 for general information on placement tests.

Hebrew may be used to satisfy the requirements for the major and minor in Jewish Studies and the minor in Hebrew Studies offered through the Jewish and Hebrew Studies Center. Please see the Undergraduate Catalog or our website for details.

Hebrew course descriptions

HEBREW 111-1,2,3: Hebrew I
This is a three-quarter first year course. Focus is on conversational Hebrew, while teaching the rudiments of Hebrew grammar. HEBREW 111-1 is designed for true beginners with no previous background in the language.

HEBREW 121-1,2,3: Hebrew II
This three-quarter intermediate course reviews and expands grammar, with reading and discussion of Hebrew literary works (prose and poetry) and newspaper articles. Successful completion of HEBREW 121-3 will satisfy the Weinberg foreign language requirement.

HEBREW 216-1,2,3: Hebrew III – Topics in Hebrew Literature
This three-quarter advanced course focuses on reading Hebrew literature, some biblical but mostly modern poetry and prose. It entails in-class discussion and regular essay writing in Hebrew.

Study Abroad in Israel
For over thirty years, Northwestern students have pursued semester or year-long study abroad at Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Ben Gurion University in Beer Sheba and Tel Aviv University. Students interested in studying abroad in Israel should consult with the Hebrew Coordinator during their first year.
This is an exciting time to study the Middle East and North Africa - and Northwestern is an especially dynamic place to do so. Here, we are pursuing new directions in thinking, teaching, and writing about a diverse region that has shown the world that the standard ways for understanding it are fast disappearing.

Northwestern’s Middle East and North African Studies Program (MENA) is committed to offering students and the community at large an in-depth understanding of the region that stretches from Morocco to the Gulf States and Iran, and from the Mediterranean into the Sahara and beyond.

ARABIC 111-1, 2, 3: Arabic I (Elementary Arabic)
This three-quarter first-year course facilitates students learning of the alphabet and sound system and helps them develop basic speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. It also introduces students to the diglossic sociolinguistic environment of the Arab World, and provides exposure to basic, high frequency regional spoken variety elements.
This course is designed for true beginners with no previous background in the language. Students with any background must take a placement test before enrolling in 111.

ARABIC 114-0: Conversation and Culture in the Arab World: Spoken Egyptian Arabic / Spoken Levantine Arabic / Spoken North-African Arabic
This single-quarter course provides a more in-depth introduction to spoken colloquial Arabic of a country or region - for example, Egyptian, Levantine, or Moroccan. It adds emphasis on spoken language and conversation, and may be repeated for credit with different dialect.
Please note that ARABIC 114-0 may not be used toward fulfillment of the Weinberg foreign language requirement, and that prior completion of ARABIC 111-2 or instructor permission is necessary to enroll. Typically offered in Spring quarter of each academic year.

ARABIC 121-1, 2, 3: Arabic II (Intermediate Arabic)
This three-quarter second-year course is a continuation of Arabic I, and moves students forward in all modes of language use, including additional exposure to representative regional spoken varieties. Students work on more sophisticated written expression and reading abilities for higher level/more abstract types of texts. Successful completion of ARABIC 121-3 will satisfy the Weinberg foreign language requirement and is strongly recommended for those intending to study abroad.

ARABIC 211-1, 2, 3: Arabic III
In this three-quarter continuation course, students improve their skills through more extensive work with authentic texts. In addition to expanding their knowledge of vocabulary and idiomatic expressions, students also strengthen their writing abilities and develop more effective speaking and listening skills.

ARABIC 311-1, 2, 3: Arabic IV
This course sequence continues to present textbook-based instruction, but also branches out to include more supplemental materials from literary sources (prose and poetry) and broadcast and print media.

ARABIC 316-1, 2, or 3: Reading Arabic Literature in Arabic
These quarter-length courses continue to strengthen students’ language skills through close examination of representative works of Arabic Literature. Each focuses on a different area or genre such as Arabic poetry, classical Arabic texts, or modern Arabic prose texts (i.e. the short story and novel).
Hebrew

HEBREW 111-1,2,3: Hebrew I
This is a three-quarter first year course. Focus is on conversational Hebrew, while teaching the rudiments of Hebrew grammar. HEBREW 111-1 is designed for true beginners with no previous background in the language.

HEBREW 121-1,2,3: Hebrew II
This three-quarter intermediate course reviews and expands grammar, with reading and discussion of Hebrew literary works (prose and poetry) and newspaper articles. Successful completion of HEBREW 121-3 will satisfy the Weinberg foreign language requirement.

HEBREW 216-1,2,3: Hebrew III – Topics in Hebrew Literature
This three-quarter advanced course focuses on reading Hebrew literature, some biblical but mostly modern poetry and prose. It entails in-class discussion and regular essay writing in Hebrew.

Persian (Farsi)

PERSIAN 111-1, 2, 3: Persian I
A three-quarter Persian language course beginning in Fall Quarter. Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to greet one another, introduce themselves, describe their daily routines, and converse on everyday topics. The Persian script is used from the very beginning for all purposes.
PERSIAN 111-1 is for true beginners in the language; however, heritage learners may also register with the permission of the language coordinator.

PERSIAN 121-1, 2, 3: Persian II
A three-quarter Persian language course beginning in Fall Quarter. This course is a sequel to PERSIAN 111 and continues with the same materials used in first year, with the addition of selections from newspapers and classical and contemporary literature.
The four skills are further sharpened, especially reading with more advanced vocabulary, and the Arabic element within Persian is discussed.
Successful completion of PERSIAN 121-3 will satisfy the Weinberg foreign language requirement.

Study Abroad in Israel
For over thirty years, Northwestern students have pursued semester or year-long study abroad at Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Ben Gurion University of the Negev in Beer Sheba and Tel Aviv University.

Students interested in studying abroad in Israel should consult with the Hebrew coordinator during their first year.

Turkish

TURKISH 111-1, 2, 3: Turkish I
This three-quarter first-year course introduces students to the essential points of modern Turkish grammar and vocabulary to develop basic reading, writing, speaking and listening skills. The course also provides insights into modern Turkish culture through language. The course requires no prior knowledge of Turkish. However, heritage learners may also register with the permission of the language coordinator.

TURKISH 121-1, 2, 3: Turkish II
This three-quarter intermediate Turkish course is a continuation of Turkish I and further develops reading, writing, speaking and listening skills. It is designed for students who have completed Turkish 111 or equivalent.
Successful completion of TURKISH 121-3 will satisfy the Weinberg foreign language requirement.

Study Abroad in Turkey
Northwestern has an academic-year exchange partnership with Koç University as well as an affiliation with Boğaziçi university’s summer program. However, these programs are temporarily suspended due to security concerns. Please contact the Study Abroad Office for more information.

In addition a Critical Language Scholar Program offered by the United States Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.

There is an opportunity to study in Tajikistan through a Critical Language Scholar and Cultural Affairs.

CLS recipients must apply for permission to study abroad through the Study Abroad Office in order to be eligible to transfer credit back to Northwestern from this program.
